

THE THEATRES

JACKSON'S

"BILLY, THE KID." In one of the strong scenes in his new play, "Billy, the Kid," by Joseph Santley and Walter Woods, Frank Jackson is said to make his escape from his foes by smashing his way through a bludge and getting out of a chair and getting out of the trap laid for him on the back of a spirited horse. The incidents in this play are said to have taken place in actual happenings in the life of a now prosperous Eastern business man in his youthful days. Manager Jackson is at present in "Billy, the Kid," his theatre the first three days of next week with matinees on Tuesday and Wednesday.

STRATFORD

Miss Eda Falken, who is professor of physical culture in a large college for girls at Oakland, Cal., and who has been spending a quiet and restful vacation at Stratford, returned on Monday morning upon her return trip to the Pacific coast. This will make the fifth time she has crossed the continent. The notable structures at the Mills college, where she teaches, is the clock tower, built of reinforced concrete. This stands within a few feet of a brick building that was badly racked by the great earthquake. The tower escaped damage.

Mrs. James E. Hamilton has returned to Simsbury after a brief visit at her mother's.

Miss Vivian Falken went to Dorset, Vt., on Tuesday, to remain for some time, or until the Barnum school reopens.

Great sympathy is expressed for Miss Miller in the loss she has sustained by the death of her son, a young man in the prime of life, who is well spoken of by all who knew him. He had been complaining of feeling unwell for some time and went to Egremont, Mass., hoping to restore his health, where he succumbed to typhoid fever. It is recollected that but a few years ago Mr. Miller died, and one of the tragedies of the Housatonic was when his wife was drowned by the upsetting of a boat.

Mr. David Coe has returned to town after spending a few days in Hartland, Conn., on the border of Massachusetts.

Miss Sturdevant, sister of Mrs. Radford B. Smith, is under the doctor's care but is reported to be improving in health.

Our local baseball team will go to Milford on Saturday to play the crack team of that town.

There is said to be good fishing at the breakwater for blue fish and bass. And they are reported to be of fine size.

All those interested in the Masonic lodge and its numerous attractions, should find their way this evening to the corner of Stratford avenue and Beardsley Lane.

Miss Sara Swindell, one of our teachers at the State school, has recently lost her father, who met with his death in New York city in an elevator accident. The home of both was at Windsor Locks.

Two young ladies who have many friends in town, Misses Margaret Agnes and Mary Lourdes Murray, nieces of Mrs. James A. Dolan, were married today in Williamstown, the first to John Collins of that city and the last to Philip J. Dwyer employed by the N. Y. N. H. & H. railroad.

The Dunbar family will soon move into its new house on Freeman st.

Miss Mary E. Merrick will soon go to Tennessee, where she is employed in teaching.

Home made rye bread is to be one of the features of the Rehearsal food sale at the Dayton house next Saturday afternoon. If it should rain the ladies will go within doors.

Miss Hattie Alvord, who has long been ill, is now improving in health.

Mrs. C. J. Porter is visiting relatives in Danbury.

It is announced that East Broadway has recently been much improved. Selectman Stevens gets the credit.

Mrs. Hattie L. Hubbel hopes to spend the rest of this month at Lake George.

It is said that as long ago as July 3, Mr. Howard Hoadley of Warrenville, married in Stratford, a young lady from Bridgeport named Gertrude Munroe. The happy couple are on a prolonged wedding trip to the west.

Local people who have been over to Port Jefferson to fish report that the fish on that side of the Sound are not biting this year.

The Cupheag club holds a meeting tomorrow evening.

For indigestion and all stomach trouble take Foley's Orino Laxative as it stimulates the stomach and liver and regulates the bowels and will positively cure habitual constipation. F. B. Brill, local agent. *135.

FAIRFIELD

A celebration is being planned in town by those who are glad that the state road through Fairfield and on to Easton was completed. It is proposed to honor the event on Sept. 1 with a banquet and public addresses by prominent men. A large platform will be erected near the residence of Mr. Hitchcock, from which the speakers will address the audience. Among these, if the plans are carried out, will be Commissioner Macdonald who has charge of the building of state roads, Gov. Weeks, Speaker of the House, Judge Elmwood, and several others. The town officials will be invited to be present, and a dinner will be served at the residence of Mr. Hitchcock.

Something like a half dozen of men from New Haven are now at work preparing to carry electricity from the cable which runs through the town to the residence of Mr. G. Jennings on the hill. It is said he will give up the use of gasoline, and have all his grounds and the mansion illuminated by electricity. The statement is made that the cable is to be laid underground, and that the job will require some six weeks for completion.

Mr. Forsythe and Mr. Hill are carting the material from the depot.

A very delightful musical was given last night by Mrs. Conover in honor of her friend, Miss Hilda Kinquard, of Providence, R. I., at the well known Flint residence. Mr. Tomlinson, of Bridgeport, had the arranging of the program.

It has been arranged that a week from next Sunday the Old Fairfielders will play a game with the Rubber Ship team.

Another meeting of the Fire Department is to be held this evening to continue arrangements for the coming fair. It is known that the Graphophone Fire Department and Drum Corps will attend the fair on the opening night, and that the musicians of the drum corps will give concert.

The boys are to leave the trolley at church corner, where they will be met by the Fairfield Fire Department, in uniform, and it is hoped that the old Pacific company of Bridgeport, some 200 strong, will also join in the parade to the grounds at the fire house. These are to be illuminated by several arc lights and the truck house is to be decorated inside and out. Chief Moore and Chairman Seligson of the committee are doing all they can to make the affair a success. The hope is that enough funds may be realized to enable the department to purchase an Ajax chemical engine.

The bridge which carries the highway across the tracks near the depot, is being repainted.

An extra copy of "Poppea of the Postoffice," was received at the library on Monday. People of Fairfield who attempt to find any local coloring, will be disappointed. The story is set in Fairfield, and the Moosatic river might possibly be the Housatonic, while some will think Quality Hill is Greenfield Hill, and Harley's Mills may mean Mill Plain, but this is hardly probable. Westboro is spoken of, which we all know is a town in Worcester Co., Mass., but as it has no harbor, the chances are it stands for Westport. The book is easy to read, has a strain of religious sentiment here and there like a thread of gold in a brown cloth, and will remind one of the works of Mrs. Humphrey Ward, slightly Americanized.

Mr. Drowne of Southport has formed a partnership with Mr. Eaton, and gone into the cabinet making and upholstery business in Bridgeport.

Miss Emma F. Wakeman has returned from vacation.

Electric drop lights are being hung over all the tables and desks in the library.

A patent sprinkling fire extinguisher has been installed in the wire weaving factory of C. O. Jelliff & Co.

Mrs. William H. Northrup is visiting in New York city.

After a couple of weeks in Southport, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Wheeler have returned to Bridgeport.

Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Penny and Mrs. E. Vibbard are now at Asbury Park.

The family of Mr. William Montross, from New York, which has been stopping in town for some time, has returned to the city.

There will be a concert at the home of Mr. H. S. Glover, Fairfield, on Tuesday evening, August fifth, at eight o'clock, for the benefit of the Fresh Air Home. All are invited. Admission fifty cents. There will be home made candy and lemonade for sale.

Miss Anna Cunningham of the S. N. B. Telephone Co., of Danbury, spent yesterday in town.

Miss Irene Egan of Danbury, visited friends in town Sunday.

Mr. William Curby and son Leo have returned from a visit in New Milford and Brookfield.

The program for the summer concert by pupils of Mrs. James W. Gordon Friday evening, August 13, will appear in full in this week's issue of the Newtowner.

Campbell of the School of Oratory and Eloquence at Syracuse University, will be an added attraction; also a local male quartette. The affair is being looked forward to with pleasant anticipation by all. Admission to all parts of the hall will be 25 cents, children 15 cents.

ITCHED A YEAR: CURED IN A WEEK

Hands Cracked Open, Bled, Burned and Ached—Could Not Sleep nor Even Dress Himself—Professional Treatment Failed to Help Him.

MAN OF 70 OWES SKIN COMFORT TO CUTICURA

"I am a man seventy years old. My hands were very sore and cracked open on the insides for over a year with large sores. They would crack open and bleed, itch, burn and ache so that I could not sleep and could do but little work. They were so bad that I could not dress myself in the morning. They would bleed and the blood dropped on the floor. I called on two doctors, but they did me no good. I could get nothing to do me any good till I got Cuticura Soap and Cuticura Ointment. About a year ago my daughter got a cake of Cuticura Soap and one box of Cuticura Ointment and in one week from the time I began to use them my hands were all healed up and they have not been a mile sore since. I would not be without Cuticura Remedies."

"They also cured a bad sore on the hand of one of my neighbor's children, and they think very highly of the Cuticura Remedies. John W. Hasty, So. E. fingham, N. H., Mar. 5 and Apr. 11, '09."

For Baby's Skin

The purest, sweetest and most economical method of preserving, purifying and beautifying baby's delicate skin, scalp and hair is the constant use of Cuticura Soap, assisted, when necessary, by gentle applications of Cuticura Ointment, to soothe inflammation, and chafings of infants, children and adults, as well as for shaving, shampooing, sensitive, antiseptic cleansing and all purposes of the toilet, bath and nursery. Cuticura Soap and Ointment are unrivaled.

Cuticura Soap (25c), Cuticura Ointment (50c) and Cuticura Resolvent (50c), for the form of Cuticura Coated Pills, per box 60c are sold throughout the world. Fuller Drug & Chem. Corp., 33-35 West 12th St., New York City. See 32-page Cuticura Book, mailed free, giving description and treatment of a hundred skin affections.
